IB class standing notices released

The International Baccalaureate (IB) Department provides parents and guardians with a Class Standing Notice (CSN) to give an update of their child/ward’s academic standing. The CSN will help them monitor and set action plan(s) about their child/ward’s academic performance.

After receiving the copy, kindly fill-out the reply slip and let your child/ward submit it to his/her class adviser the following meeting. Parents or guardians are welcome to set an appointment to their child/ward’s subject teacher to discuss the academic standing in detail.

Who will go to extended midyear or EMY class?

Long holiday

School holidays can be a difficult time for parents, especially working parents. But get it right and the holidays can be a lovely time for everyone. Here are some tips for enjoying the school holidays:

- Plan ahead. Mark out when you are planning to be away on holiday together, and make sure that you give yourself enough time to do some packing beforehand and washing afterwards. Space out your spending, especially if your budget is limited, so that expensive things do not all happen in the first week of the holidays leaving the rest as a bit of a let-down.
- Stock up on craft activities or equipment. Make sure that you have plenty of indoor activities in hand, planned and ready to go, especially for wet days, or if you have to go to work. Look out for shops having sales of craft activities or kits, and use the Internet as a source of ideas for craft activities that can be put together easily.
