PTC on Mar. 13: More than just getting report cards

After getting the report card of your child in the Parent-Teacher Conference (PTC) on March 13, 2020, please find time to meet the sponsor of your child in school. All Grade 3 up to Grade 12 students have each an assigned teacher, officer, or staff member who meet with them regularly and acts as their ardent supporter, and guide. If you don't know your child's sponsor, just ask his/her class adviser who has the class sponsorship list.

There will be no classes in all campuses on March 13, 2020 to give way to the PTC. Let us meet and collaborate together on how best to help your child optimize his/her potentials.

Parenting Corner Creating a safe prom night

Teens look forward to their prom for a night of style, socializing, and unbridled fun. But behind the glitz and glamour are risks that have long been associated with prom nights. The following tips may ease your prom anxieties, while helping to keep your kids as safe as possible

- 1. Know the plan. Tell your children that you want them to have a wonderful, memorable prom. Keep that wish as a central focus. They need to give you their complete itinerary for the evening, including who they will be with, where they'll be going after the prom and the phone numbers where you can contact them. "We'll just be driving around" is not an acceptable response. Come to a fair decision on a curfew, based upon your children's past level of responsibility in this area. Reinforce your belief in their character and in their ability to act responsibly.
- 2. Stay informed and keep in touch. If your children are not returning home right after the prom, you need to be able to contact them at all times until they return home. You also need to be reachable at all times as well. There can be no doubt where your kids will be and with whom throughout the evening and morning. If they're going to other kids' houses after the prom, check ahead of time with these children's parents. Establish a couple of mandatory call-in times with your kids.
- 3. Offer your support. Give your children the unconditional option of calling you at any time for help or advice. That includes picking them up at any time of day or night, with a promise not to shame or humiliate them in front of others. Assure them that you always welcome being part of their making smart and safe decisions. This unconditional offer of help and advice should be an outstanding offer throughout their lives. ## Weekend programs extend enlistment

The Worthwhile Weekend Program (WWP) is extending enrollment for its second run this 2020. The WWP is SISC's offering for students and other interested parties who may want to put their Saturdays into good use by learning new skills in fun and interesting ways.

For the sportsminded, there are sessions in Basketball, Volleyball, Soccer, Karate-Do, Arnis, and Chess.

In the performing arts, there is Ballet in partnership with ACTS Manila.

For details, call Elydia Reyes at 825-2358 local 327, or fill out the reply slip of this bulletin. There should be a minimum of 5 students to open a class.

Reserve for Academic Year 2020 - 2021

The Registration Office would like to make a realistic projection of the student population for academic year 2020 - 2021. To achieve this, SISC needs to determine how many of the present students are reenrolling so that the school can allocate slots for qualified applicants for admission.

Please accomplish the Reply Slip of the Reservation Letter given to all SISC students and return it to your child's class adviser on or before March 15, 2020. In case you have two or more children enrolled in SISC, please accomplish just one form specifying all your children's names and their levels. You may send the reply slip through your eldest child, or you may give it directly to the Registrar's Office in Luxembourg Campus.

It is understood that the reserved slot/s for your child/children may be waived if your reply slip is not returned by March 15, 2020.
