Early Childhood Education transitions to online learning platform

Teacher Bea starts online class in preschool.

Preschoolers say hi to their teacher and classmates during online class.

This week, some of our Early Childhood Education Division (ECED) teachers have started the Google classroom with our Preschoolers and Grades 1 and 2. Our young Monarchs were so excited to see their teachers and classmates! The Deputy Principals, Teachers Phi Anh and Sheryl, have listed some guidelines to ensure that we continue to provide learning to our little Monarchs. They have shared these to all ECED teachers. Likewise, they will email these guidelines to our parents, Detailed schedule of online classes will be sent to the parents of ECED as well.

As Covid-19 continues to impact our communities, we are committed to doing what is best for our students. We will continue the online learning and teaching so as to give a semblance of normalcy in the academic life of our Monarchs. We have read and heard your comments and suggestions, and we are doing our best to transition to the online mode of teaching as smoothly as we could.

There will be some lapses and technical glitches along the way as we transition to online learning and teaching. There might be some confusions and frustrations, but we will continue to deliver instruction in the best interest of our students and their learning in this time of crisis. We thank our teachers and parents whose collaboration is very much evident to ensure that we maintain the academic routine.

Online Attendance

Our goal is to ensure that our students' learning continues despite the disruption of classes. We monitor attendance of our students in order to find out if we are able to deliver instruction to all. For the week of March 16 - 19, the following is the attendance report of our Deputy Principals:

LEVEL	ATTENDANCE (%)
Grades 3 – 5	78%
Grades 6 – 9	79%
Grades 10 – 12	82%
IB	89%

We are doing our best to reach out to all our students and give them the same lessons that those who are attending online lessons are having.
