SISC parents support online learning in the time of COVID-19

At the onset of the cancellation of classes to prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus, Southville International School and Colleges (SISC) students and teachers immediately shifted from face-to-face teaching and learning to virtual classroom instruction. The school is aware that attending school online is a big adjustment for many families, including parents, but you have quickly risen to the occasion, as usual! We would like to thank everyone for their kindness and support as we continue to try our best to ensure academic continuity during the pandemic.

We appreciate SISC parents who are supporting their children and have taken to online learning in such a positive manner. We are grateful for your partnership and patience. Allow us to share your letters of appreciation and commendation to the members of SISC community:

To the Office of the Principal and to the Teachers of Southville,

I agree 100% with your assessment and evaluation of your teachers in driving the right behaviour from your students.

I am, as a matter of fact, in awe of how quickly your teachers assembled and rounded their students using several online tools to be effective in teaching, connecting with and keeping their students engaged. I also saw several fun activities used, keeping them relevant and fun for our Generation Y.

I am also humbled, that in this trying time, instead of taking care of their significant families, the teachers are preparing lesson plans using different media and being very successful with it.

Congratulations for having such dedicated teachers and staff!

*Sincerely,
Citadel Santos

Hi Ms Avic, i just read the weekly Bulletin and thought of dropping you a note.

Good job for making the school work/ activity, Business As Usual. This distracts them from the “mental” side effect of staying home and waiting for the virus to flatten the curve.

Shout out also to Coach Jack for making sure that the Southville Volleyball Team continues to take care of their Physical Health.

Keep it up and thank you for taking care of your students, our children!

The Character of your team is remarkable.

Stay Safe

DEAR SUPERHEROES,

It is very hard to make this letter as I am not in your position. No words can describe how hard you've worked for the betterment of the country and how tired you must be after staying awake all those hours to treat your patients. From the bottom of my heart, thank you for putting yourselves first. God bless and stay safe!

Thank you! Created By: Tyrulf Ekberg

Stay Positive!

With love,
Chrziel Anne T.
Gabriel

generous act of kindness to mankind. You have followed the commandment of Jesus to "Love your neighbor as you love yourself" and for me that is unconditional love. You may decide to stay at home with your families but instead of doing so you went on your way to help. Praying that God will give you good health, strength, wisdom and provision in this hard times. May the Lord Jesus reward you a hundredfolds!

Thank you to all the doctors and medical personnel who are fighting this virus in the front lines and in danger of catching it
- Adi

Do not ever lose hope as your health could get better any time. Never give up and be kind even in a that time. Make most out of your kindness by spreading kind words but if you think that the way you are planning to spread kindness might be a bit dangerous to someone, be kind with words then. - Emaan

For the people who has corona virus just take care of yourself and be brave. And Be positive at all times knowing that you will be okay. And dont lose hope.
- Samin

To all front liners and COVID-19 patients we are a family, and we will fight as a family because we stand as a family so as we gather together we will find a medicine to fight this invisible enemy who has came to destroyed our beloved home we call earth, and i believe if we follow the rule of the government we can make a difference and remember washing hands using hand sanitizers wearing mask staying far away from those who are sick we all can be safe lastly remember "we go to work for you, plz stay at home for us"
- Emerald

Good luck to those who are infected keep in mind that there is still hope for you because there are many doctors who are working on a cure or vaccine as we speak.
- Shweta

we would like to thank the front liners for COVID-19 for risking their lives to help stop the pandemic. We would like to pray for all of those who are sick and who caught the virus and wish them all the best of luck while fighting with this virus.
- Adam

To the front liners and COVID-19 patients, do not lose hope. Thank you to the front liners and health workers for risking and working hard to help treat the patients so that they can recover. To the patients, do not lose hope and keep fighting.
- Mary

Sincere thanks to the doctors who are working and fighting in this danger. And those who have coronavirus, dont lose hope that you will be fine.
- Catherine

Thank you for helping us understand the issue and try to prevent it. For those with the issue please dont be afraid and i wish you the best
- JooWon

Thank you to all doctors and people who are fighting coronavirus. Taking the risk to cure others. I will also take care of myself to not get infected by others. I will also try to help others and never lose hope.
- Junila

To our dear healthworkers and frontliners, We are in never ending debt to you. All your sacrifices and help towards our country. We will be forever thankful to you. Continue on the fight as this will end soon. Use your families and loved ones as inspiration to continue working and fighting for this pandemic. Once this is over, you will relieve the reward you deserve. To the fallen health workers, we are thankful that you have put your lives at stake so we can fight this disease. You have received eternal rest and you shall remain at peace. We will continue this fight for you. We shall continue to fight and work hard as one community so that we can beat this deadly disease. Thank you for all your help and God bless you. - Avery

Thank you for the doctors who fight with corona virus, Thank you for the president to lead the country well and People who got corona virus, please never give up. Because you can be better. - Alyssa

Thank you to all the front liners who are fighting against corona virus. Also the patients don't give up and have hope everyone will be fine soon. - John

Imagine being given up on you're not gonna let that happen to people are you that's whats great about you people and for the patients you can only try to survive but

To the people of COVID-19 do not give up and good luck. Thank you workers and doctors who fight the corona virus be brave and stay healthy. And i hope everyone will be well soon don't lose hope.

An illustration featuring several healthcare professionals in white lab coats. One person in the top left wears a face mask. Another in the center left holds a clipboard and pen. A woman in the bottom left is gesturing with her hand. On the right, a person holds a large X-ray of a ribcage. The background is a light yellow with a wavy orange line at the bottom. The entire illustration is framed by two vertical pink bars on the left and right sides.

THANK YOU

Thank you to all the health care professionals around the world. Thank you for risking your lives. The world cannot thank you enough.

Need to do research during the enhanced community quarantine?

While SISC's physical libraries remain closed, here's what you can do to conduct research and access ample resources from your couch 24/7.

1. Utilize the free online resources available in the "ONLINE RESOURCES" tab of the library website (<http://library.southville.edu.ph/>).
2. Maximize the use of the FREE SUBSCRIPTION/ACCESS such as the EBSCO (active until April 15, 2020). Go to: <http://trial.ebscohost.com>

User ID: southville

Password: trial2019!

In light of the suspension of classes due to COVID-19, all overdue fines incurred from March 09-April 18, 2020 shall be waived. Online renewal of borrowed library resources is available through the website.

Schedule of Holy Week Break

From April 6 to April 10, 2020, distance learning from preschool to Grade 12 (including International Baccalaureate 1 and 2) will be offline. Online teaching and learning will resume on April 13, 2020. As of this writing, there are no announcements yet from the national government when schools will reopen. We will keep you posted when normal classes will resume.

The Holy Week is also an opportune time to seek spiritual nourishment during this period of extraordinary disruption and anxiety. It is a time to connect to the moment, to self and to others, and kindle faith that we can overcome this challenge. As we turn to prayer in this time of crisis, let us find comfort in the Southville Invocation.

Southville Invocation

The Lord is my shepherd, I have everything I need. He lets me rest in fields of green grass, and leads me to quiet pools of fresh water. He gives me new strength. He guides me in the right way as He promised. Even if that way goes through the deepest darkness. I will not be afraid, Lord, because You are with me. Your shepherd's rod and staff protect me. I'm sure your goodness and kindness will follow me everyday of my life. And your house will be my home forever. Amen.
