SISC CELEBRATES VIRTUAL SCHOOL SPIRIT WEEK

The SISC Basic Education community showed that they are still connected while apart by celebrating a virtual School Spirit Week from September 21-25, 2020. Students and teachers united for various themes throughout the week that were easy to participate in from home and keep school spirit alive.

The week started with an I Love Southville shout-out on Monday, a Southville Colors mufti day on Tuesday, a Let's V.O.L.T. In experience on Wednesday, a Make A Difference project on Thursday, and a Thank You Southville cheer on Friday. Students were also able to hear from 1987 alumna Ayni Nuyda, founder and project director of Search Mindscape Foundation, who shared her beautiful memories in SISC and encouraged her audience to do their best, have fun in school, and cherish their classmates and teachers even in these unprecedented times.

The School Spirit Week is held in SISC every year to celebrate the institution's core values and develop community strength and school pride. As social distancing prevents on-campus celebration, this year's virtual event provided a sense of normalcy during this challenging time and added a bit of fun to students and teachers as they diligently continue their online classes.

THANK YOU FOR JOINING THE VIRTUAL PARENT ORIENTATION

SISC would like to thank all the parents and guardians who joined the recent virtual Coffee Chats and Orientations of an unprecedented school year. We appreciate your taking the time to meet with your children's teachers, and hope it was able to provide valuable insight into how they'll learn and succeed using e-learning. Your presence and active participation in the school's first virtual parent orientation signify your strong commitment to be a vital part of the SISC community in a school year full of firsts. We look forward to our continued partnership.
