WWP goes online to keep teens and kids active

The Worthwhile Weekend Program (WWP) is SISC's offering for students and other interested parties who may want to put their days off into good use by learning new skills in fun and interesting ways. This year, it shifted online to give young ones the opportunity to stay active, healthy, and have fun while trying a new sport or developing previous skills. Dribble and shoot to better basketball or soccer skills, or punch, block and kick for fun and fitness.

The first session starts November 7, 2020, and needs at least 5 registrants to open. Get in the game by clicking the link below.
